1. PREAMBLE.

- 1.1 all appendices and schedules to this Agreement form part of this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect until terminated or suspended pursuant to clause 19;
- 1.2 the terms of this Agreement shall apply to the conduct of all General Insurance Business transacted between the Sub Broker and the Broker. Nothing in this Agreement shall require the Sub Broker to accept any proposal for insurance or renewal of any existing insurance, or to maintain cover in respect of any existing insurance if an Insurer cancels cover, if in its sole discretion it declines to do so. In the event of non-renewal or cancellation of cover the Sub Broker will advise the Broker as soon as reasonably possible;
- 1.3 the Parties hereto warrant that they have full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform the obligations contained herein;
- 1.4 for the purposes of this Agreement the Broker is acting at all times as the agent of the Client and not of the Sub Broker, and has no authority to act on behalf of the Sub Broker. The Broker has sole responsibility for the advice it gives to its Client;
- 1.5 nothing in this Agreement overrides the Broker's duty to place the interests of its Clients before all other considerations, nor shall this Agreement override any legal or regulatory requirements that may apply to the Sub Broker, Broker, or the placing of any insurance business;
- 1.6 this Agreement specifies the Terms under which the Broker will introduce business to the Sub Broker on behalf of its Clients, which it wishes to be placed by the Sub Broker with Insurance Companies or Intermediaries with whom We hold agencies;
- 1.7 no other person has any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Agreement other than any associated and/or subsidiary companies and/or parent undertakings of Aston Lark Limited. This provision shall not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999;
- 1.8 this Agreement does not, and is not intended to, confer or create any rights enforceable by any person who is not a party to the contract (for the avoidance of doubt, You are not permitted to enter into a Sub-Broker Agreement in relation to this Agreement without first obtaining written agreement from Us in writing);
- 1.9 this Agreement will not create a partnership or joint venture between You and Us;

1.10 any references in this Agreement to any regulatory body, statutory provision or Rule shall include a reference to such body, provision or Rule as from time to time are re-enacted, amended, extended or replaced and shall include any instruments, orders, regulations, directions, rules and guidance made thereunder or deriving there from.

3. REGULATORY STATUS.

You warrant that You are fully authorised by the FCA to deal with the general insurance business and that You will continue to be so and will retain all regulatory permissions to enable You to fulfil Your duties and obligations under this Agreement.

You will comply with the respective legal, licensing and regulatory requirements applicable to the production, placing, claims handling and premium and claims accounting of any insurance business which You place with Us.

This Agreement will be terminated with immediate effect should You cease to have the necessary authorisations.

You warrant that You will immediately inform Us in writing if during any time in the duration of this Agreement:

- i. our authorisation is suspended or withdrawn in full or in part by the FCA.
- ii. You are subject to disciplinary action or are under investigation by the FCA or other regulatory authority.
- iii. You are or become aware of an actual (including suspected) breach with the Rules or Your ability to comply with them.

You will at all times comply fully with the Rules insofar as they apply to the business transacted by Us on Your behalf.

You will be responsible for Your Appointed Representative and Introducer Appointed Representatives as defined in the FCA Handbook and remain fully responsible to Us for any acts omissions of such representatives as if they were Your own act.

4. PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE.

You will hold, maintain and meet the costs of a minimum of £2 million of Professional Indemnity Insurance or the minimum amount required in the FCA handbook, whichever is the greater.

You will produce a copy of the cover note and/or policy on demand by Us in writing.

You will inform us immediately in writing

if Your professional indemnity insurance is cancelled, voided, not renewed, or is deemed to be insufficient to meet Your business needs or operations.

5. ANTI-BRIBERY AND MONEY LAUNDERING.

Each Party will have in place procedures and controls which are designed to forestall and prevent Money Laundering and Bribery. If either Party suspects that a supplier, customer, Client or employee is committing a Money Laundering or Bribery offence as defined by the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and Bribery Act 2010, they will, in accordance with their legal responsibilities, disclose the suspicion to the National Crime Agency or the Serious Fraud Office.

6. NOTIFICATIONS.

In addition to the notifications required in Section 3 You agree to inform Us immediately in writing if any of the following occur:

- i. there is a change to Your ownership, partners, directors or general shareholding.
- ii. there is a change to Your trading name or registered address or You become incorporated.
- iii. You become insolvent, appoint a receiver, administrator or manager over any part of Your undertaking or assets, seek liquidation or if any of Your directors, owners, partners or principals become bankrupt.
- iv. if any of Your directors, owners, partners or principals are subject to, or become subject to disciplinary proceedings instituted by a professional or regulatory entity or they are convicted of any criminal offence excluding motoring offences.

- v. in the event that there are any other material changes which are relevant to this Agreement.

7. CLIENT OWNERSHIP.

All Clients introduced by You remain Yours for the duration of this Agreement, and You are solely responsible for:

- i. Identifying Your Client's demands and needs, and checking the content of the demands and needs statement produced by Aston Lark Limited; advising Us of any alterations or errors.
- ii. Providing any professional insurance or risk management advice.
- iii. Checking all of the documentation to ensure it is correct and in line with the Client's requirements.
- iv. We will not contact Clients directly for any purpose without Your prior permission, unless absolutely necessary for the purpose of the administration of the General Insurance.

8. SERVICE AND DELIVERY.

- 8.1 You will supply all necessary administration, accounting, underwriting and claims information and access to any data that is or may become necessary for the proper performance of this Agreement.

- 8.2 You will advise us in relation to all Insurance Business whether the Insured is classified as a Consumer or a Commercial customer for the purpose of ICOBS.
- 8.3 You have no authority to accept or amend insurances, to settle, negotiate or compromise claims, alter any documentation or commit Us in any way. You cannot amend or alter any forms supplied by Us or use any of Our advertising, promotional or other selling materials without Our prior permission.
- 8.4 You will advise the Insurer promptly of any claims or potential circumstances that the Insurer would reasonably be expected to be told, and which may affect future decisions regarding the continuing renewal of the policy, policy terms or premium weighting.
- 8.5 You will retain for a minimum period of 6 (six) years any documents which validate the covers arranged for the Client and provide these to Us on request in writing. For the avoidance of doubt, such retention period applies to both documents and electronic data.
- 8.6 We undertake to ensure the policy wording is delivered to You or the Client as soon as is possible.
- 8.7 You undertake to ascertain the Client's insurance requirements at new business and renewal stages.

We will endeavour to meet these requirements and offer a suitable product. It is Your responsibility to meet the documentation and disclosure requirements of the Rules.

- 8.8 You will only confirm the terms of the insurance or reinsurance cover after You have received written confirmation from Us that the insurance or reinsurance is in force.
- 8.9 You will promptly pass to the Client all renewal documentation issued by Us, notifying them of any change in the cover, terms or conditions.
- 8.10 You will notify us immediately of any written request to cancel a policy during the cancellation period.
- 8.11 You will exercise due care, skill and diligence in all dealings and ensure that the Client understands the duty of disclosure.
- 8.12 We reserve the right not to incept cover for particular Clients.
- 8.13 You are only permitted to sell or market Our General Insurance Business direct to customers under Your brand, Our brand or the brand of the Insurer (use of Our brand or the Insurer's brand to be solely in accordance with and to the extent permitted in writing). For the avoidance of doubt, unless and until You have received Our prior written approval, You are NOT permitted to:
 - a) Appoint sub-brokers; or
 - b) sell (or allow the sale of) any of Our General Insurance business or place (or allow the placement of) any of Our General Insurance business prices using any other distribution channels.

For the avoidance of doubt, You are not permitted, unless and until You have received prior written approval from Us to use (or allow the use of) aggregators or price comparison mechanisms. Any such approval provided by Us shall be subject to the aggregate price comparison websites being FCA authorised as General Insurance intermediaries (or exempt from authorisation) and having the appropriate regulatory permissions for such activities.

8.14 We may carry out an audit of Your procedures and relevant trust accounts in respect of General Insurance business and You shall allow Us or Our agents access to Your premises, files and documents in relation to this Agreement on reasonable notice for these purposes.

8.15 It is a legal requirement that all Clients must be screened for legal sanction purposes and by signing this Agreement the Broker confirms that they and their organisation fully complies with the requirements laid down by the FCA or the regulator of its country of domicile.

8.16 If the Client does not wish to renew, You will inform Us as soon as You become aware of this and will return any renewal document to Us no later than 30 days after the renewal.

8.17 You will promptly pass any Material Information to Us and ensure that any changes in the facts or circumstances are also advised to Us promptly. In the event of You being aware of any non-disclosure of materially important information You will either inform Us or decline to act on behalf of the Client. For the purpose of this clause You remain the Client's Broker and notification by the Client to You will not constitute as notification to Us.

9. REMUNERATION.

9.1 We will not fund any premiums, duties or taxes on Your behalf, except as stipulated in clause 11.1.1. For the avoidance of doubt settlement of monies due to Us must be made within 30 days of inception or renewal.

9.2 You shall be entitled to be paid a proportion of the commission earned by Us for policies arranged by Us following an introduction from You at rates to be agreed in writing from time-to-time. Such payment will be deemed to be inclusive of any and all tax that may be applicable. Such payment will only become due once the premium has been received by the Insurer and We have received Our commission from the Insurer. In the event of the cancellation of the policy(ies) on which a return or refund of premium has been generated, You will be responsible for the return of Your pro-rata share of the commission in respect of such return premium.

- 9.3 Commission is not due or payable in respect of interest on instalment payments, uninsured loss recovery, and legal expenses or on any element of Insurance Premium Tax.
- 9.4 Both during and after the termination of this Agreement, You will be liable to reimburse Us for the unearned proportion of commission within 30 days on any business subsequently cancelled or where cover has been reduced unless both Parties agree to offset the amount against future commission payments.
- 9.5 You will comply with requests by Clients for disclosure of Your commission and other aspects of remuneration and provide a prompt and accurate response in accordance with FCA Rules.
- 9.6 Commission may be deducted by the Broker when the Broker has received the Premium (cleared funds) relating to the insurance business transacted with the Sub Broker.

10. ALL PREMIUMS AND OTHER SUMS RECEIVED OR COLLECTED BY THE BROKER RELATING TO THE INSURANCE BUSINESS TRANSACTED WITH THE SUB BROKER.

Risk transfer, Trust Requirement and Co-mingling

- 10.1 The Insurer appoints the Broker as its agent for the purpose of receiving and holding any monies representing:
 - 10.1 (a) Retail Premium payable to the Insurer and paid to the Broker (Risk Transfer Money) by or on behalf of the Policyholder; or
 - 10.1 (b) Retail Premium refunds payable to the Policyholder (Risk Transfer Money), and the Broker shall receive and hold all Risk Transfer Money at all times as the agent of the Insurer in accordance with the terms of this clause 10. Accordingly, Risk Transfer Money shall not constitute client money for the purposes of chapter 5 of the FCA's Client Assets sourcebook (CASS).
- 10.2 All Risk Transfer Money shall be held by the Broker at all times under appropriate Trust arrangements within a bank account with an Approved Bank.
- 10.3 The Insurer acknowledges that the intention of the Parties is that, in the event of the insolvency or other financial default of the Broker, Policyholders whose monies are required to be dealt with in accordance with this clause 10 shall not be denied insurance cover or any Risk Transfer Money which may be due to them from the Insurer as a result of such insolvency or other financial default, and accordingly irrevocably agrees that:

- 10.3 (a) in respect of all sums referred to in clause 10.1(a), such sums shall be treated as having been received by the Insurer when they are received by the Broker
- 10.3 (b) in respect of all sums referred to in clause 10.1(b), such sums shall be treated as having been paid to the applicable Policyholder (or as otherwise directed by the Insurer) or third Party only when they are actually paid by the Broker to such recipient; and
- 10.3 (c) the provisions of clauses 10.3(a) and 10.3(b) shall apply in all circumstances notwithstanding any breach by the Broker of any of the terms (express or implied) of this Agreement (including this clause 10 or any matter which may entitle either Party to terminate or rescind this Agreement or to treat this Agreement as not being binding upon them.
- 10.4 If required by the Insurer, the Broker shall as soon as reasonably practicable provide to the Insurer a copy of an acknowledgement from the bank at which the Broker maintains its risk-transferred money account that the bank is not entitled to combine that account with any other account or to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim against money in that account in respect of any sum owed to such bank on any other account.
- 10.5 The Broker shall be entitled to commingle Risk Transfer Money with any other client and/or Risk Transfer Money held by the Broker and the Insurer consents to its interests with regard to monies held in the Broker's client monies account being subordinated to the interests of the Broker's clients.
- 10.6 The Broker has no authority, whether under this Agreement or otherwise, to permit any third Party to receive, hold, or pay any money on behalf of the Insurer without the Insurer's prior express written consent.
- 10.7 The Broker shall ensure that, in accordance with CASS 5.2.3R (3), each Policyholder in respect of which Risk Transfer Money is held in accordance with this clause 10 is informed that the Broker will hold their money as agent of the Insurer.
- 10.8 The Broker shall be entitled to any interest or investment income earned in respect of Risk Transfer Money.
- 10.9 Unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing, section 53 of the Marine Insurance Act 1906 shall, if otherwise applicable, apply notwithstanding the provisions of this clause.

10.10 This clause 10 shall continue in full force and effect, notwithstanding the termination or rescission of this Agreement for any reason, both in respect of all Risk Transfer Money held by the Broker at the date of termination or rescission and in respect of all further Risk Transfer Money which may be received by the Broker following such termination or rescission.

10.11 The terms of this clause shall apply notwithstanding any other arrangements made between the Broker and the Insurer in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement, unless the Parties expressly state in writing that this clause is not to apply, either generally or in relation to any particular arrangement.

10.12 References in this clause to a Trust shall, in the case of monies held in Scotland, refer to monies held in accordance with the Scottish law of agency.

11. PAYMENT TERMS.

11.1 Premiums:

- i. You shall pay Us the full amount of Retail Premium in respect of General Insurance policies sold pursuant to this Agreement, and settlements shall be made within 30 days from inception/renewal.
- ii. Your obligations in respect of settlements are not affected by:

- a) any credit arrangements which You may have made with the policyholder;
- b) any delays in crediting to Us monies received or due from the Policyholder because of delays within Your accounting system;
- c) Your inability to obtain monies from the Policyholder (subject to and in accordance with clause d);
- d) You shall be responsible for payment to Us for the Gross Premium or in the case of Net-rated business, the Net Premium, (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include the pro-rated portion of the Gross or Net Premium for any time on risk before a policy is cancelled), together with any applicable IPT. You shall comply promptly with any instructions which We give and shall have deemed to have accepted responsibility for payment of the Gross Premium (or Net Premium in the case of Net rated business) including any applicable IPT if You do not comply with these instructions.

11.2 Fees:

Where We charge a fee in connection with policy placement We will confirm this to You at the point of quotation and this will form part of the overall Retail Premium settlement.

11.3 Interest

We reserve the right to charge interest in respect of the late payment of any sum due under this Agreement at the rate of 3% per annum above the base rate from time to time of Barclays Bank Plc from the due date for payment of such sum until the date of actual payment of that sum.

12. COMPLAINTS.

- 12.1 Both Parties will notify each other immediately in writing on receiving a complaint from a Client which relates to either Parties service or activities and will provide copies of the complaint, any relevant information and documentation.
- 12.2 Copies of documentation will be retained for 6 (six) years.

13. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

- 13.1 The Parties to this Agreement are committed to resolving all disputes arising under this Agreement without the need for litigation, and as far as possible, for the Parties commercial relationships to remain unaffected by disputes. Therefore, the Parties:
- 13.1 (a) shall attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute or claim promptly through negotiations between their respective senior executives who have authority to settle same;
- 13.1 (b) shall attempt in good faith if the matter is not resolved through negotiation in 3 months of the dispute arising to resolve the dispute or claim through mediation with the assistance of a mediator as agreed between the Parties or as recommended to the Parties by the Centre for Dispute Resolution (CEDR) or sum similar organisation as the Parties may agree, or;

- 13.1 (c) if the matter has not been resolved by mediation within 6 months of the dispute arising, or if either Party will not participate in a mediation procedure, then the dispute shall be referred to the courts in accordance with clause 22 below.

14. CONFIDENTIALITY.

- 14.1 Both Parties will treat any information relating to the other, its business and its Clients as confidential except such information as is in the public domain other than by way of breach of this Agreement or the recipient is already in receipt of it prior to transmission by the sender or receives the information from a third party entitled to disclose it or where the recipient is compelled to disclose it by legal or regulatory requirement.
- 14.2 Neither Party will disclose the confidential information listed in 11.1 to any third party, nor use it for any purpose except as is necessary for the performance of this Agreement or unless required by law, the FCA or to comply with regulatory obligations.

15. DATA PROTECTION.

- 15.1 Each Party will comply with its obligations under the Data Protection Laws, including having in place and maintaining all policies, procedures, privacy notices, security measures, and consents necessary to comply with the Data Protection Laws, and will ensure that it is not subject to prohibitions or restrictions which would restrict it from complying with the Data Protection Laws.
- 15.2 The Broker shall ensure that Data Subjects, including potential Policyholders, are provided with sufficient fair processing notices and that it has obtained all appropriate consents required to allow it to transfer the Personal Data to Aston Lark Limited for the purposes of this Agreement and to enable Aston Lark Limited (and any third parties to whom Personal Data may be transferred including Insurers) to process the Personal Data in connection with this Agreement.
- 15.3 In the event that a Party suffers a 'personal data breach' (as defined in Data Protection Legislation) that relates to Shared Personal Data, the Party in breach shall:
- 15.3 (a) notify the other Party within 24 hours of becoming aware of such a breach;
- 15.3 (b) notify the other Party by midday on the next available working day if the Party in breach becomes aware of such breach outside normal office hours within the applicable Territory with no out of hours notification arrangements in place between the Parties.

- 15.4 For the purposes of this Agreement, both Aston Lark Limited and the Broker will be deemed to be a Data Controller as defined in the Data Protection Laws.

16. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

- 16.1 Both Parties will retain ownership of all their respective rights, including intellectual property rights, in the products, data, databases, computer programmes, documents, materials, ideas or other information or any compilation thereof used in the performance of the services. The Parties agree to do whatever is reasonably necessary to confirm or give effect to such ownership.
- 16.2 To the extent that any products, data, databases, documents, materials, ideas or other information constitute an original item developed by either Party as a consequence of performing the Services, each Party agrees to do whatever is reasonably necessary to confirm or give effect to such rights vesting in the developing Party.
- 16.3 You shall not advertise on Our behalf without prior written consent. You shall not use Our trade name, trademarks or logos or data in advertising, including Your website.

17. INDEMNITY.

Each Party will indemnify and keep indemnified all losses, costs, claims and liabilities incurred by the other arising from:

- i. any failure by the indemnifying party to comply with FCA Rules or other regulatory requirements
- ii. any other breach by the indemnifying party of this Agreement.

18. VARIATION.

The terms of this Agreement can only be varied with the written consent of both Parties, by giving 30 days' notice in writing.

19. TERMINATION & CONSEQUENCES.

19.1 This Agreement may be terminated by mutual agreement between both Parties on giving written notice to each other or by one Party giving not less than 7 days' notice in writing to the other of their wish to terminate the Agreement.

19.2 This Agreement will be terminated immediately in the event of the Broker becoming insolvent, appointing a receiver, seeking liquidation or any of its principals becoming bankrupt.

19.3 This Agreement will be terminated automatically on the death of the Broker where it is a sole trader.

19.4 In the event of termination, nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right of action of the Sub Broker or its right to recover premium from the Broker or its Clients or to apply any return premiums received from Insurers against monies which may be owed to it by the Broker or its Client.

19.5 This Agreement may be terminated where one Party has reasonable grounds for suspecting fraud or dishonesty by the other or by the other's employees, agents, sub-agents or independent contractors.

19.6 Where one Party reasonably holds the opinion that, either the regulatory status of the other Party has changed or that the other Party is administering the business which is the subject of this Agreement in a manner causing or likely to cause prejudice to Policyholders, Us or You, as the case may be; this Agreement may be terminated.

19.7 We may terminate any Agreement or any part of it by notice in writing if You have failed to pay any monies due to Us pursuant to this Agreement despite a written reminder from Us which specifies the required date for monies to be received by Us.

19.8 Any termination pursuant to clauses 19.4, 19.5 or 19.6 shall have immediate effect and where appropriate, suitable arrangements for the servicing of the Policyholders will be made by You and Us.

20. FORCE MAJEURE.

Both Parties will not be liable for any breach of their respective obligations, acts or omissions under this Agreement resulting from causes, circumstances or conditions beyond their reasonable control including, but not limited to, an Act of God, insurrection, wars fire or riots, provided the affected Party gives prompt notice in writing to the other Party of such Force Majeure event and uses all reasonable endeavours to continue to perform its obligations under this Agreement. Either Party may terminate this Agreement if such Force Majeure event continues for more than 3 (three) months.

21. NON-SOLICITATION.

The Sub Broker covenants and undertakes that it will not solicit nor permit the solicitation of insurance business from any Clients introduced to it by the Broker during the term of this Agreement and for a period of 12 months following the termination of the last policy except in circumstances shown below whereupon such scheme/facility benefits will be forfeited:

- i. The Broker has given its specific written permission to the solicitation, by reference both to the identity of the Client and the nature of the proposed insurance;
- ii. The Client or a third party representing him, approaches the Sub Broker direct with a view to providing insurance coverage;

- iii. The solicitation is by way of general direct marketing campaign using target lists supplied by a third party which can be clearly identified; or
- iv. The Broker becomes insolvent, enters into a composition with its creditors, has a receiver or administrator or administrative receiver appointed in respect of all or substantial part of its assets, enters into liquidation otherwise than for the purpose of amalgamation or reconstruction, or cease or threatens to cease the operation of its business.

22. JURISDICTION.

This Agreement is subject to the law of England and Wales and the jurisdiction of the English courts.

In the event of a change in law or regulation (including FCA Rules), which affect any of the Parties' obligations under this Agreement, the Parties will co-operate in good faith to agree any necessary amendment(s) or variation(s) to the Agreement.

23. WAIVER.

No waiver by Us or any breach by You of any terms of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach.
